Academic CV and Motivation Letter

---

The Pragmatic Academic Series

---

11 Nov, 16:00 CET, Online

---

Panelists:

- Isabella Sarto-Jackson
(Konrad Lorenz Institute)
- Dominik Zechner (Rutgers)
- Benjamin Schnieder (Vienna)

We will address the topics/questions:

- How should a professional CV in philosophy should look like?
- Critical information in a CV/Motivation letter [recruiter/experienced applicant perspectives]
- What are AOS and AOCs? How to present them?
- Presenting "gaps" in a CV [non-academic work periods, parental leave, care of relatives, illness, etc.]
- "No-goes" in a CV/Motivation letter ["worst" first sentences]

Panel experts will share their hiring processes experience in academic philosophy and discuss what, in their view, makes an application convincing

We encourage PhD scholars seeking post-doc positions and advanced MA students seeking prae-doc funding to join our session!

You can send questions in advance to vd.philosophie@univie.ac.at
Subject: "Question to panelists"
